Research Objective:

Exegesis of verses (142-150) of surah Al-Baqara, an analytic and objective exegesis that will highlight the subject of change of Qibla which was the first abrogation in Islam, the concern for it, preparations to it and the emphasis on it.

by Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Ali Al-Husni Al-Qal'awi popularly known as (As-Suhaimi) Ash-Shafi'ee (1178AH) Investigation and Study

Dr. Ahmad bin Ali bin Abdurrahman Al-Huzaifi

Research topic:

Investigation of a manuscript titled: (Exegesis of of surah Al-Fajr) by Ahmad bin Muhammad bin Ali Al-Husni Al-Qal'awi popularly known as (As-Suhaimi) Ash-Shafi'ee (1178AH).

Research objective:

Investigation and publication of the Manuscript for the benefit of students of knowledge who specialize in Quran Exegesis.

Research problem:

The author in his exegesis of surah Al-Fajr combined both authentic and other grades of hadith and views which necessitates study and investigation of the treatise.

Research findings:

1. The author of the treatise is among scholars of jurisprudence concerned with Quran exegesis.
2. The attribution of the treatise to the author is confirmed.
3. The treatise has merits and demerits, it also has benefits in exegesis, jurisprudence and hadith just as there are fabricated and weak hadiths in it.
4. From the content of the treatise, one can see the diversity of the author in various areas of knowledge like jurisprudence and Arabic language, just as it is obvious his knowledge of hadith is little.

Creedal and Critical study

Dr. Ahamd Muhammad Falah An-Namrat

Research topic:

Research objective:

Establishing the problem of linguistic weakness among Jewish and Christian researchers with examples, and highlighting its evil creedal impact.

Research problem:

The phenomenon of linguistic weakness among Jewish and Christian researchers who pointed linguistic criticisms at the Quran,

Research findings:

1. Jewish and Christian researchers did not meet up with the condition stipulated by scholars of the three religions: adequate knowledge of the language before exegesis of the texts.
2. The need to refer to scholars of Quran exegesis, Arabic language and creed in order to resolve any problem or bad understanding of the words of the Quran.
3. The linguistic weakness of the researchers has evil creedal impacts such as judging the Quran to be the words of man, faulting the attributes of Allah, contesting the message of our prophet Muhammad, deformation of the Quran and prohibiting themselves from guidance.

Views of Imam of Al-Bukhari on science of the Quran through the Headings of "the book of virtues of the Quran"

Presentation and Study

Dr. Yahya bin Salih At-Tuwaiyan

Research Abstract

Research topic:

Views of Imam Al-Bukhari on science of the Quran through the headings of "the book of virtues of the Quran" presentation and study.

Research objectives:

Investigation of "the book of virtues of the Quran" in Sahih Al-Bukhari in order to bring out the views of Imam Al-Bukhari on science of the Quran from the headings of the book.

Research problem:

It is common knowledge among scholars that the jurisprudence of Imam Al-Bukhari is in his headings. That was why this study is meant to study his views on the science of the Quran through the headings of "the book of virtues of the Quran".

Research findings:

1. The headings of "the book of virtues of the Quran" in sahih Al-Bukhari comprises thirty seven chapters in which Imam Al-Bukhar touched on six areas of science of the Quran which are: revelation, how the Quran descends, compilation of the Quran, arrangement of chapters of the Quran, virtues of the Quran, and etiquettes of reciting the Quran. After the study, it was clear that Imam Al-Bukhari has his own views in many of the matters.
2. There are other aspects of this Imam which are still in need of study like: studying his views or deductions on Quran exegesis through the headings of his book "Al-Jami' As-Sahih".

1. The heading of sunnah books are still in need of study so as to establish the views of their authors in sciences of the shariah especially science of the Quran and its exegesis.

Methodology of Ahlu-Sunnah and Theologians in relating with matters of Unseen a case study of:

Slaughtering of death and Punishment of the Grave

Study of Ahlu-Sunnah and Logicians' reading of the texts of the two-revelations

Azeeza Armooli

Research topic:

Highlighting the importance of methodology in dealing with matters of unseen, in addition to explaining impact of the difference between the methodology of Ahlu-Sunnah and Theologians in establishing these narrations like the issue of "slaughtering of death" and "punishment of the grave".

Research objectives:

Discussing the proofs of the two groups, and explaining their methodologies in dealing with texts of revelation especially the matters of "slaughtering of death" and "punishment of the grave".

Research problem:

What is the secret behind the disagreement of the Ahlu-Sunnah with others in dealing with narrations of unseen like the issue of "slaughtering of death" and "punishment of the grave"? Does methodology play a role in this disagreement?

Research findings:

1. Difference of methodology, especially, in matters of unseen leads to difference in the way of dealing with them.
2. Difference in methodology led one of the groups to affirming those narrations with certainty that: the knowledge is from Allah, the messenger is to transmit it while the Ummah is to submit to it, while the other group refuse to follow that path and instead, adopted skewed interpretations and that caused the denial of narrations established by revelation.
